

FAQ's for Prospective Students

When is the lottery?

The General Public Lottery will be held on Saturday in March 3, 2012.

The Sibling Lottery is for families who already have one child attending PLP and wish to send siblings. The Sibling Lottery will be held February 21, 2012.

Will my chances improve if I attend the lottery?

No. Prospective families are welcome to attend the lottery, however your presence is not required.

When are applications accepted?

Applications will be accepted on the website (www.pinelakeprep.org) November 1, 2011 to January 31, 2012.

Our address/phone number/email has changed since we applied, how can I update our information?

Email jtabor@pinelakeprep.org with the changes

Will there be an open house?

Yes. November 12, 2011 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and January 22, 2012, from 2:00 to 4:00.

We applied last year but were not accepted, does applying multiple years give us an advantage?

No, per state law you must apply every year for the appropriate grade.

My child is currently a student at Pine Lake Preparatory. Does this mean their sibling will have a place at PLP next year?

No. Siblings must submit a sibling application and the Sibling Lottery determines the order in which offers will be extended to siblings based on space available in each grade. To apply to the Sibling Lottery, visit www.edline.net between November 1, 2011 and January 31, 2012.

My child has been offered a space at Pine Lake Preparatory. Does this mean their sibling will have a place at PLP this year also?

No. Siblings will maintain their wait list number for the 2011-12 year. The following year siblings must submit a sibling application. The sibling lottery determines the order in which offers will be extended to the siblings based on space available.

After the lottery, how do I find out my child's number?

Pine Lake will mail post cards to the applicants with their wait list number or an offer of enrollment.

My ex-husband (or wife) has children who would like to attend PLP, are they considered siblings?

The children must live in the home (primary custody) for the child to be considered a sibling. All others would have to enter into the general lottery.

Do I need to re-apply for my currently enrolled children?

No you do not need to re-apply but we will have re-enrollment via Edline in February. This is a simple form where you state whether or not your child will be returning.

How old does my child have to be to enroll in Kindergarten?

The child must turn 5 years old before August 31, 2012.
